

Sandra Cross
Center Co-Director/Instructor

Sandra holds a Master of Music in Vocal Performance from the Eastman School of Music. Her professional credits include: performing with the DuPage Opera Theatre, Bach & Beyond, Lyric Opera of Chicago Chorus, Chicago Symphony Chorus and the St John's Lutheran Church. Recently, she performed with the CSO in a program titled "In the Company of Critters." She became a Registered Music Together teacher in the summer of 2007. Currently, she is teaching the Music Together curriculum and private voice lessons at the Sherwood Conservatory of Music at Columbia College. She is thrilled to be opening a center with her friend and colleague, Scott Will. Let's explore music together.

Scott Will
Center Co-Director/Instructor

Scott Will is the founder and current Executive and Artistic Director of Bach and Beyond - Music for the Community. Scott received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Applied Music with a minor in Russian Studies from Luther College and spent two years of graduate study at Roosevelt University's Chicago College of Performing Arts. Scott became a Registered Music Together teacher in the summer of 2008. Currently, he has the pleasure of teaching Pre-K through 8th grade general music at St. Joan of Arc school in Evanston and St. Josaphat in Chicago. He is also the Music Director of Wilmette Lutheran Church.

Instructors

All of the instructors are Registered Music Together teachers who are passionate about music and working with children. They create a fun environment where children may explore their individual musical development.
